A Cosmopolitan City with a Lively Atmosphere

ADTA 79TH ANNUAL MEETING
DENVER
APRIL 22 – 26, 2020
DENVER 2020 - AN INVITATION

I am excited to invite you to the 79th Annual Meeting of the ADTA in Denver, Colorado, April 22 – 26, 2020. Admittedly, I did not know a lot about Denver before it was selected for the Annual Meeting. In fact, I had never even been to Denver. I have since visited twice and taken the opportunity to learn a little about this impressive city. I discovered that while it has a rich history of cowboys and mining, it has evolved into a diverse and cosmopolitan city with a thriving arts and cultural scene. The Mile High City is just that – 5,280 feet above sea level (that’s how it got the name). It has 300 days of annual sunshine. In 1858, not a single person resided in the Denver metro area except for some migrating camps of Arapaho and Cheyenne Native Americans. Thanks to the Gold Rush, just 30 years later, Colorado was a state with a population of close to 200,000 people. Denver now has a population of approximately 700,000, making it the 21st largest city in the U.S. Thanks to the ADTA, come April, the population of Denver will temporarily grow by 300 people, and Denver will never be the same!

Our host hotel is the upscale Westin Denver Downtown which offers many amenities, including a heated indoor/outdoor pool with sundeck that boasts lovely views of Downtown Denver and the Rockies in the distance. The hotel is within walking distance to many tourist activities, including the adjacent 16th Street Pedestrian Mall, the Denver Center for the Performing Arts, restaurants that appeal to a wide array of culinary tastes, microbreweries and rooftop bars.

Meeting hosts Kevin and Alice Amatuzio and Executive Director Peggy Schultz are hard at work putting together a fun-filled and exciting week that will kick off Wednesday with a Welcome Reception on the pool deck. Thursday night we will enjoy cocktails, dinner and dancing at the Nature & Science Museum. My favorite DJ from Phoenix will be playing music that will create a great vibe for this event. On Friday, we will celebrate the ADTA’s accomplishments in embracing diversity at the Diversity and Inclusion Reception, followed by a very special offering for the dine around for all who are interested – a suite at Coors Field to watch the Colorado Rockies play the Milwaukee Brewers. On Saturday night, you don’t want to miss the Gold Rush Gala. Rock your gold dresses and ties, and of course your gold bling, and be prepared to be entertained, wined and dined.

Our guest of honor will be parking partner Simon Tam. Little did he know, that the music would take him from the studio to the state penitentiary, and the stage to the Supreme Court. Hear this fascinating tale of how the worlds of civil rights and trademark law collided when an ordinary trademark application turned into an eight-year journey for self-identity and blurred the lines between art and activism. This is a deeply personal story that shares the client perspective of a landmark case and addresses important issues such as inclusion in the law, freedom of speech, and the power of persistence.

Optional activities include, but are not limited to, the famous Red Rocks, the amazing Denver Aquarium, the historic Brown Palace Hotel, and the American Museum of Western Art. President-Elect Ed Birk and his CLE Committee have assembled an impressive group of speakers for our CLE sessions. Presentations will include topics such as how to regulate and litigate in the new marijuana space; learning how not to be a victim of cyber crime; how to build a diverse defense firm; obvious ethical dilemmas with not so obvious answers; using technology to communicate effectively; and meet the “Gig” lawyer of tomorrow who is already here today. We have a wonderful balance of CLE from within the ADTA and from outside. This will be the best CLE yet! Our two Saturday speakers will inspire and challenge us. Simon Tam will tell us about his story of personal discovery on the way to the U.S. Supreme Court. Tim Overton will challenge us to examine unconscious thoughts, and in the process, leave us all feeling more connected than when we started. New this year, in order to facilitate member engagement, we will be holding committee meetings on Friday during an hour that historically would have been devoted to CLE.

Finally, and, it goes without saying, the ADTA’s famous Hospitality Suite will be off the chain.

If you are a regular attendee at ADTA Annual Meetings, I look forward to seeing you in Denver. If you are an ADTA member, and have not been to a meeting, make Denver your first. I assure you – if you do, you’ll keep coming back. This will be my 11th consecutive ADTA Annual Meeting. I wouldn’t miss it for the world. Neither should you!

Lori Berke
ADTA President

8:30 am - 9:30 am
Slanted: How An Asian American Troublemaker Took on the Supreme Court
Simon Tam
The Slants Foundation, Brentwood, TN

Simons Tam wanted to change the world by creating an Asian American band called The Slants. Little did he know, that the music would take him from the studio to the state penitentiary, and the stage to the Supreme Court. Hear this fascinating tale of how the worlds of civil rights and trademark law collided when an ordinary trademark application turned into an eight-year journey for self-identity and blurred the lines between art and activism. This is a deeply personal story that shares the client perspective of a landmark case and addresses important issues such as inclusion in the law, freedom of speech, and the power of persistence.

Saturday, April 25
9:30 am - 10:30 am
Consciously Addressing our Unconscious Biases
Timothy Overton
Dickinson Wright, Phoenix, AZ

Tim’s presentation provides disarming, scientific and real-world context for recognizing and addressing bias in ways that connect us to each other and make us more effective individually and collectively. Through images, stories, and studies, we will better understand why we and others feel, think, say, and do certain things in certain situations. We will learn how to recognize, control, reduce, and eliminate biases and predispositions that can otherwise create blind spots within us that block us from seeing the full picture and reaching our full potential.

ADTA 2020 ACTIVITIES

Aquarium – Denver
Thursday, April 23, 2020
12:30 – 4:00 pm

Our underwater adventure at the Aquarium in Denver begins with lunch in the 50,000 gallon centerpiece aquarium, which allows exceptional floor-to-ceiling viewing from all tables. We will see more than 100 species of colorful tropical fish from the Caribbean Sea, Hawaii, South Pacific and the Indian Ocean. The million plus gallons of underwater exhibits highlight fascinating ecosystems from around the world. The ADTA has been to other aquariums but this is the most fascinating and beautiful aquarium that we have had the opportunity to visit. Maybe you could swim with the sharks! Don’t miss!

American Museum of Western Art
Thursday, April 23, 2020
12:45 - 4:00 pm

Step back in time and straight into the American West at the American Museum of Western Art—The Anschutz Collection. Featuring more than just cowboys and landscapes (though there are plenty of those too!), the AMWA boasts three floors of galleries highlighting a range of styles and subject matter, from the historic to the contemporary. Guests will then enjoy lunch at nearby Steuben’s, a classic and modern diner that has perfected American comfort food. This authentic Coloradan experience is sure to open guests’ eyes to the beauty of the wild, wild west!

All About the Browns
The Brown Palace/Molly Brown Museum
Thursday, April 23, 2020
12:45 – 4:00 pm

Open since August 12, 1892, The Brown Palace Hotel and Spa has become one of the most beloved Denver, CO hotels. Everyone stopped in Denver, either on their way to or from the mountains. Edbrooke designed The Brown Palace in the Italian Renaissance style, using Colorado red granite and Arizona sandstone for the building’s exterior. Walk back in time the minute you enter the doors of the hotel to relish the stories buried in the Palace history.

The Molly Brown House Museum stands as an enduring symbol of the turn of the 20th century in Denver. In the 1880s, the lucky few who made millions in the mountains, the railroads, or trade moved to the prestigious Capitol Hill neighborhood. James Joseph and Margaret Brown purchased the house in 1894.

Historic Denver’s Molly Brown House Museum enhances Denver’s unique identity by telling the story of Margaret “Molly” Brown who was an American philanthropist, activist, and a socialite. Brown was known as “The Unsinkable Molly Brown” because she survived the sinking of the RMS Titanic.

Red Rocks Park and Amphitheatre
Friday, April 24, 2020
12:30 - 4:45 pm

Red Rocks Park and Amphitheatre’s reputation may precede it, but there’s no replacement for experiencing this acoustically impeccable, naturally stunning marvel of ochre sandstone yourself. We will have a guide lead us on a hike through a series of nature and hiking trails. Lunch will be in the Red Rock’s Ship Rock Grille which is built around two giant slabs of red sandstone. This is worth a visit for the view alone.

Dress appropriately.

Colorado Rockies vs. Milwaukee Brewers
Dine Around Option
Friday, April 24, 2020, 6:30 – 11:00 pm
  Allow yourself to have a unique and spectacular Dine Around evening by joining many of your ADTA friends at Coors Field - Home of the Rockies. Imagine the fun we will have in our ADTA suite with “baseball” food and beverages watching the Colorado Rockies battle it out with the Milwaukee Brewers.
  Located in the heart of lower downtown (“Lo-Do”), Coors Field combines the nostalgic feel of classic ballparks with state-of-the-art technology, creating an unparalleled baseball experience.
  Mere blocks from the hotel.

Denver Performing Arts Center
“Dixie’s Never Wear a Tube Top”
Saturday, April 25, 2020
2:00 pm - 4:30 pm
  Laughter is the best medicine. You’ve heard it over and over, so plan to sit back and enjoy Dixie Longate during this hilarious afternoon performance at this stunning venue. Dixie Longate is a nationally known comedian with a wildly successful show “Dixie’s Tupperware Party” who reviewers and audiences alike cheer for her nonstop laughter. Her new show will provide just as many laughs based on current reviews.

Book Review
Thursday, April 23
9:30 – 10:30 am

“It Happened in Denver” by Stephen Grace
  A fascinating collection of twenty-five compelling stories about events that shaped the Mile High City, “It Happened in Denver” describes everything from a nineteenth-century gold rush that turned a tent city into a bustling frontier outpost to the mid-1990s construction of a baseball stadium and the urban renewal that accompanied it. In an easy-to-read style that is entertaining as well as informative, “It Happened in Denver” will interest people of all ages.

“Denver” by John Dunning
  By the 1920s, Denver had outgrown its frontier-town beginnings. But for some, life was still as perilous as the surrounding terrain. The insidious influence of the Ku Klux Klan was reaching its peak, and those who stood in its path feared for their safety. Denver is the saga of a family caught in this tempestuous time.
